Paving Scheduled For The Farm Area

Quick Facts

- Parents will still be able to drive their children to summer camps but may need to take a detour, which will be clearly marked to minimize disruption.
- Workers with Catawba Asphalt Paving Co. Inc. of Rock Hill will cover the loop around the lake and the road around Winthrop Coliseum with asphalt.

ROCK HILL, S.C. - This summer's paving of the Winthrop Lake road and several nearby parking areas will prevent drivers from accessing parts of Winthrop University's Recreational and Research Complex, or The Farm.

Parents will still be able to drive their children to summer camps but may need to take a detour, which will be clearly marked to minimize disruption.

Workers with Catawba Asphalt Paving Co. Inc. of Rock Hill will cover the loop around the lake and the road around Winthrop Coliseum with asphalt. Other areas scheduled for paving include the softball, golf course, Winthrop Coliseum and Olde Stone House parking areas. The work should take until September, depending on the weather.

Already completed is the soccer parking area near the back of the Farm.
